Dear Mr. Meredith.

May an ordinary English woman express her admiration of your courage, dignity and presence in the recent incidents in your university. The world-wide coverage they have received leaves little doubt in many minds where the true nobility of man is to be found.

I hope that in the difficult months ahead of you, you may be sustained by knowing that your cause is truly just, and a little perhaps by knowing that ordinary people like me - all over the world salute you as a man of integrity and rare courage.

Yours sincerely,
Barbara Lane.
